The author of poetry and prose inspired by Melville’s Moby-Dick offers a series of prose meditations on the influences, obsessions, and styles of reading practiced by a poet for whom American literary history is alive and well. Beachy-Quick is the author of A Whaler’s Dictionary (prose) and North True South Bright, Spell, and Mulberry (poetry).

Mr. Beachy-Quick will also read selections of his poetry and prose at

Brazos Bookstore

2421 Bissonnet St.

March 13, 2008, 7:30 p.m.

For more information, please contact Joseph Campana at jac4@rice.edu or X 4316.